DRUG POLICY

Twin Cities In Motion (TCM) has a zero tolerance drug policy.

Athletes who compete for prize money at TCM events may be subject to drug testing conducted by the United States Anti-Doping Agency (USADA). Athletes with positive drug test results will forfeit any prize money and will be disqualified from the TCM event in which such athlete participated. In addition to testing, all participating athletes in Championship events will be required to sign a pledge statement attesting that they are competing clean and within all rules and regulations set forth by USADA and WADA.

Athletes who previously have been suspended for violations of the drug policies of USA Track & Field (USATF) or the International Association of Athletics Federations (IAAF) will not be invited to TCM events and are not eligible for a professional number or financial assistance.
